i like it but i think the controls should be better, other than that the game is great. I'm not a fan of golf, but here it's a good way to relax and randomly play. It's not a game for hardcores, but can still be a good game to stress out after getting some challenging achievement.

My recommendation: Casuals, get it. Golf fans: You are gonna LOVE this game, everyone else: meh... if you lack some relaxing game then go for it, if not, spend money on something else.. This game is super cool. The artstyle of the cardboard city is very cool and almost cute, but looks can be deceiving when you strap on your headset. Although it may not be the scariest, this game is CREEPY AS HELL. And I love it. It is so much darker and freakier in the Vive or Oculus than it appears on the monitor. The desperate need to find the gear when the windows go red and the ticking sounds get louder (meaning the monster/s is/are close) also makes this game super intense. I would recommend this to all VR owners. It's very innovative, and Devs, keep up the great work!. I don't think people know this exists yet so you'll probably look like a special snowflake online with it. doesn't download. I have so much love for this game and I've only played it for an hour or so! It has so many incredible mechanics, also I love time travel so this was right up my street! Chronology has an interesting plot and generally pretty good voice acting too. I'd heartily recommend this game to anyone unsure. I got the game as part of the Jingle Jam by donating <https://www.humblebundle.com/yogscast-jingle-jam>.

I've decided to do a pull playthrough of this amazing game:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GxGwFAqNFzM&list=PLySWle9ZKHfHwj6O1PfH3hapbIV1e7MII&index=20>. You can literally button mash and never drop your combo. Went from feeling like it required skill in the vein of other rhythm games, to feeling like I could just cheat my way to the end. Hopefully they'll fix that at some point. For now, refunding.. You play as a magician defending his tower from the hordes of goblins. There are three types of them — green, blue and red, — and each type could be destroyed only by the corresponding elemental magic: earth, air and fire. (There are no water goblins here, so probably your protagonist is a water magician by default.) It is an interesting experiment in the spirit of one-button clicker, but you use actually 6 buttons (3 buttons for each hand). Also, you can upgrade (actually decorate) your tower and your magician. As for me, it worked very well: I got the last achievement just at the moment when I began to lose interest. Nice little game, I think. To be picked up at the sale, as I did.. well its pretty awful since it won't download

This could be a good game but the controls are awful. Everything else about this game is fine. Not worth 5 dollars. I got it on sale for 50 cents. I may have overpaid for this game. 2/10 Rating

Please follow me at One on One Gamers. As a curator I am looking for help from you wonderful people on steam to make my reviews better. Follow, comment, support.. It's kinda bad, very bad modelled vehicles and very stupid NPCs. Glad to have been able to pick this up for free on a giveaway!

It is SURELY NOT worth €18,99. Do NOT buy!. I love these new great weapons!. Quite ok game until you see the unrealistic transfers... seriously Alba to Hannover James Rodriguez to Sociedad wth since when could those club sign high profile players on the 1st window. Quite possibly the best game I have ever played. Simple yet complex, intuitive but deep. If you've ever played Dark Souls you'll recognize a lot of the mechanics at play. Definitely Bethesdas best game yet

9.5/10. I immediately died after leaving the starting port; I immediately uninstalled the game for good.. It's not even close to FTL or X-COM, they wanted to be, but failed.

Nevertheless you could try. 30min is enough to evaluate and claim refund.
